Doug Miller

Doug,
I guess Minico
will have to make it without us. Stay happy
I'll see you around! OK.

Doug,
Sure have had a lot of fun with you during these past few years. and hope to see you in the future. Dan Korman

Hi Doug.
I don't see you around anywhere but I'll wish you
the best of luck in anything you do. Birthdays not a good or bad thing.
I'm a good friend.

Hi Doug,
I've enjoyed seeing you at school these past few years and having an occasional chat with you. I would love to have had the brain power of the best of the best & in the future. I'm a friend. I'm a good friend.
I don't remember me from out of the past you'll have a better page
of your annual pulled.
I'm an Annual puller. as even if you don't remember me from out of the
past you'll have a better page
of your annual pulled.

Hi!

Doug
I hope that you make the best of your talents
Bob Mc

Doug
I wish you
a lot of luck
in the future
Steve

Dear Doug.

Remember the classes
we've had together &
the fun. Good Luck to you in the future.

Your Friend,

Doug,
I hope you get
all you want out of life
I am

Doug,
I see you in church
and often admire you.
Good luck in the future.
Gudy Evans

Doug,
Lots of luck to a wonderful student and leader.
A Se pal,
Betty Orger

Doug,
I hope you have a lot of fun in your new job.
I wish you
all the best.
I am
Steve

Doug!
Best wishes and
lots of luck to a swell
guy.

Dear -----
I'll never forget that time.

Keep up the barbell lifting.
It was great fun. Good

FOREWORD

Imagine as you look through this book that you are looking at more than a yearbook from Minidoka County High School.

Compare Minico to a Grecian village of Spartan citizens. This is their record.

Minico is proud of each one of its 1100 citizens. Many have become honored ones as they excel in their organized colonies, in games of skill, or other activities.

Respect is shown towards those who govern as nobles and to those who give Minico support through public notices.

Minico, this is your story for the year 1960-61.

Keep out our lives we had better keep in contact. Don't worry so much, you'll live longer.

For Ever yours
B. S. A Cobber.

I hope you like the card.

HOME OF THE SPARTANS

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. AENON MOLLER

At the death of Mrs. Moller on December 15, 1960, our school lost a valuable teacher and friend. A member of Minico's Speech Department for 6 years, she helped many students and associates, and left a lasting impression upon their lives. Though she is no longer with us, we shall carry these impressions with us always and feel privileged to have known Mrs. Moller.

To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.

—Campbell

Senior Citizens

Often found dominating the scene at public gatherings and other Spartan community affairs are the Senior citizens. This mighty group will slowly lose its power, however, as the 1960-61 period comes to a close.

SENIORS

The high school graduates of 1961 are like new ships anchored at home port. Some will be shoving off soon while others will wait to gradually ease out in search of worlds unknown.

Slowly will these ships lose sight of Minico High and fade into the future. Always in view, however, will be beautiful memories of the Senior Ball and the Junior Prom held in their honor, egotistical memories of the successful senior assembly, and honorable memories of graduation day.

As these graduates look back they will have a deep feeling of gratitude towards those who have helped build them strong enough to withstand the storms of the sea of life as they sail on to new horizons.

DISPLAYED BY SENIORS

"This beautiful Minidoka County High School ring was designed to be a tangible symbol of the ever expanding traditions of Minidoka County High School and of the loyalty of its students."

Citizens

Diligently endeavoring to gain power are the three lower classes of citizens. To increase their influence, class members can be found actively participating in many community events.

Inserted into the junior class machine to be processed this year were the most important class events, the assembly and Junior Prom. Because of efficient leadership, the results proved successful. Highlight of the year, the Junior Prom, showed the capability and smoothness of the machine at its best.

More poised and experienced, the class now feels capable of meeting the challenge facing the seniors of tomorrow.

Reaching the second plateau on the climb to the peak were the industrious sophomores. Outstanding markers along the trail were the dance and the annual assembly. Looking back over the short climb, they recall games, assemblies, and other activities so typical of sophomores.

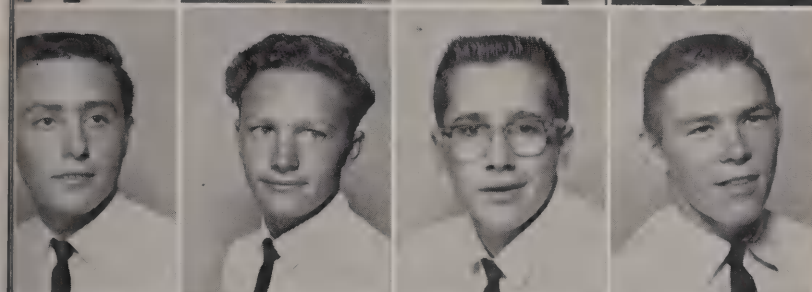

Now the year is drawing to a close and the peak seems nearer as the class is about to realize the goal of becoming upper-classmen.

IN MEMORIAM

MARGARET EVELYN YOUNG

Margaret, a sophomore at Minico, passed away on October 10, 1960, as a result of a car accident. At her death, her school lost a fine student and a dear friend.

"Safe in His care, after her quest
She's found sweet peace and quiet rest
And lives and moves among the blest

She has but found new songs to sing
New life and laughter there to bring
To love's eternal spring."

—Ernest Holmes

Pictured are the Freshman class officers: Rick Miller, vice-president; Sandra Whittaker, treasurer; Terri Brower, secretary; and Larry Loveland, president.

Laying the foundation wasn't an easy task for the "green" freshmen as they started building high school life. Completion of the job seemed hopeless on the annual "Twirp Day" when the more experienced workers enslaved the freshmen with odd jobs.

With the successful assembly, however, these freshmen have "staked their ground" to stay.

TONY CALDWELL

Anthony Caldwell, a Freshman at Minidoka County High School, was born April 22, 1945. He died on February 11, 1961, when he was accidentally shot.

"The comfort of having a friend may be taken away, but not that of having had one."

—Seneca

Organizations

Organized for the betterment of the Spartan citizens, numerous colonies are designed for special purposes. With this in mind, they hold meetings to carry out their works.

Growing each year, the largest organization in Minico is proud of its many projects. To start the year, they held a Capri Day. As this was very successful, others were held throughout the year. Once again the Minico-eds supported the "Girl of the Month" program. A monthly meeting was held, with a special speaker or program each time. The Sweetheart Ball, the girls' preference dance held near Valentine's Day, can be described as one of the loveliest events of the year. As a special contribution to the school, the Minico-eds presented the school with a large mirror for the front hall.

The purpose of the Pep Band is to aid school spirit at basketball and football games. This band is under the direction of Mr. Robert Marshall. Student director is Linda Gulley.

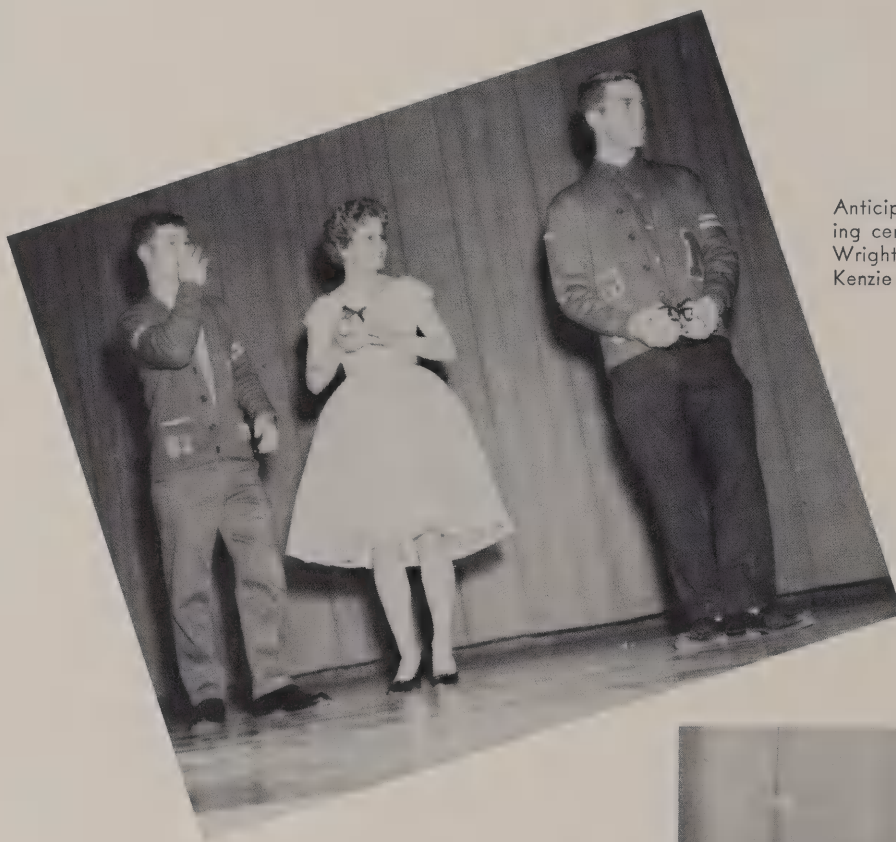

Activities

To add variety to the daily assignments, special pursuits are offered the Spartans. All may take advantage of dancing, singing, acting, playing, or many other pleasurable tasks which make life more enjoyable.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Day on November 11 held much in store for the students of Minico. Special attractions included the crowning of homecoming queen, DeAnna Rausch, during a special pep assembly. Then sitting in the rain, Spartan fans watched the Minico Spartans become victors over the Burley Bobcats in an exciting football game. The last big event of the day was a dance held that evening.

Anticipating their next move in the crowning ceremonies are Dan Bachman and Bruce Wright. Freshman attendant, Nancy McKenzie anxiously looks on.

DeAnna Rausch smiles (through her tears) as she begins her reign as queen over the homecoming activities.

These three lovely misses, Bonnie Hardman, Raida Stoddard, and Nancy McKenzie captured the title of homecoming queen attendants.

Despite the rain, DeAnna Rausch spreads sunshine with her smile as she leads the homecoming parade around the football field.

Enjoying intermission at the homecoming dance are Jim Rush, master of ceremonies, and members of the homecoming royalty.

PEP ASSEMBLIES

Pep Assemblies were held frequently during football and basketball seasons to help cheer the teams to victory. Under the direction of the cheerleaders, the student body showed their school spirit and confidence in the champions in yells, paces, and clever skits.

As a token of the M. Club's appreciation to the cheerleaders, Bruce Wright, President, presents them with a plaque.

AFTER THE GAME

The teams gets many "pats on the back" for a victory over the Burley Bobcats.

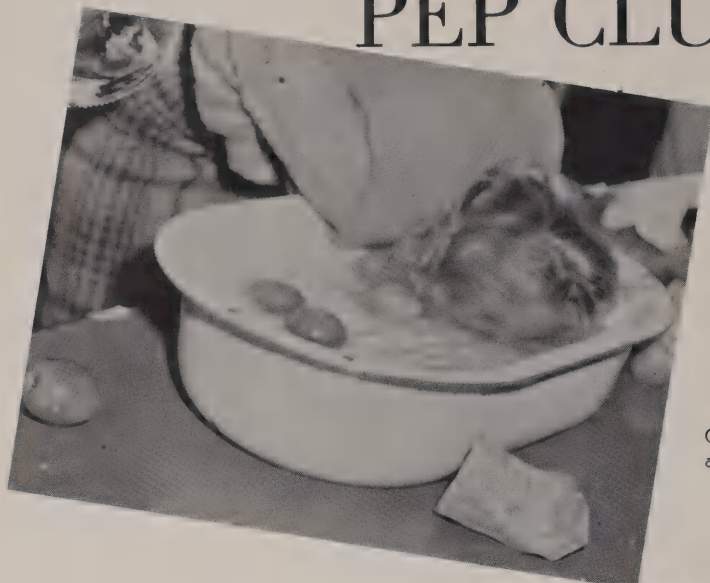

The Pep Club members do a bunny hop into a circle to give one last yell.

Many students support the after-game dances.

PEP CLUB CARNIVAL

On October 29 the Pep Club provided carnival fun for everyone. Those who attended this event enjoyed testing their skills in the various booths and dancing to records. The evening's activities were interrupted for a short time to present Lois Heiner as carnival queen with Jolene Schuldt as her attendant.

Guaranteed: a face full of water with every apple. Kathy Croft can verify this.

Roger McMurtry and Ronnie Whitaker tried their luck at "ringing a leg" as did many other boys.

One penny represented one vote in choosing a carnival queen. Carol Maxwell and Joyce Bodenhofer kept an accurate account of the votes that each candidate received.

JoAnn Schneider and Dale King reigned as King and Queen over "Old Cape Cod."

The popular Dancemen made the Harvest Ball a delightful evening of dance.

HARVEST BALL

Many couples enjoyed the Harvest Ball in an "Old Cape Cod" atmosphere. November 5 was the date of this successful dance sponsored by the F.F.A. and F.H.A.

A clever dance routine by Karyl Stephenson and Lynn Parker was an intermission highlight.

Larry Miller and Faye West were chosen to reign as Senior Ball king and queen.

SENIOR BALL

Those who attended the Senior Ball felt the added sparkle of the Christmas season carried out in the "Silver Bells" theme. With the crowning of a king and queen and the visit from Santa Claus, December 17 became a night to remember.

Many couples enjoyed an evening of dance at the Senior Ball.

Jolly old Saint Nicholas paid a visit to the Senior Ball, bringing the Christmas spirit.

MINICOED FORMAL

February 18 was the date of the Minicoed Formal. For this girl-ask-boy affair, held near Valentines Day, the theme of "Love is a Many Splendored Thing" was very appropriate. Guests enjoyed dancing and witnessed the presentation of the "Most Preferred Men" of Minico during the intermission.

These gentlemen were the choices of the girls of Minico for the "Most Preferred Men." Seated are Aslam Khan, Senior; Bob Nielsen, Junior; Billy Berry, Sophomore; and Ricky Miller, Freshman. The Minicoed officers and their helpers are in the background.

This combo group from Burley known as "The Flares" provided intermission entertainment.

His clever wit in telling jokes made Reverend Thompson a good master of ceremonies for the intermission activities.

JUNIOR PROM

Minico's Junior Prom, held May 6, 1961, featured the theme "Younger Than Springtime." The gym was transformed into a garden of lime green and white with multicolored flowers. The last big dance of the year, the Prom was a tribute to Minico's graduating seniors.

First on the list was the construction of a platform for the king's and the queen's thrones.

FRESHMAN DANCE

The Freshman Dance featuring the theme "Spanish Harlem," was held April 1, 1961, in the Minico gym. The dance floor was transformed into a starlit Spanish garden by the clever efforts of the Freshmen.

Overlooking the dance floor from one end of the gym, this mural depicts the theme, "Spanish Harlem."

This couple seems to enjoy intermission and refreshments more than the dance!

Several couples enjoy the starry atmosphere as the evening progresses.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

"A Summer Place," this year's Sophomore Dance, was held Friday, April 28, 1961. Pink, green, and white decorations accented the theme and provided a cool summer atmosphere.

A garden scene overlooking the floor puts everyone in a dreamy mood as they dance to the theme song, "A Summer Place."

Everyone's enjoying the music as a fast number spins on the turntable.

From the satisfied expressions of the crowd, you can see that the Sophomore Dance was a big success.

FRESHMAN ASSEMBLY

Presented on March 15, 1961, the freshman assembly featured the theme, "The Lawrence Welk Show." Members of the class portrayed Lawrence Welk, the Lennon Sisters and other performers. Because of the quality of the assembly, the freshmen were asked to present it to the Burley Jr. High School.

Lawrence and members of the Champagne Music Makers walk on as another act takes the spotlight.

SOPHOMORE ASSEMBLY

Now to the most important business of the day—the latest fashion report from the Ladies United Nations Assembly.

The sophomore assembly, presented January 18, 1961, featured the theme "A Woman's World." Although women do an outstanding job in the business field, it was proved that they don't know too much about running the United Nations. After giving women a fair try at everything from world affairs to the fine art of courting, it was concluded that perhaps life is a little bit better as it is.

Talented Kaylene Nelson presents her ballet interpretation of "Theme From The Apartments."

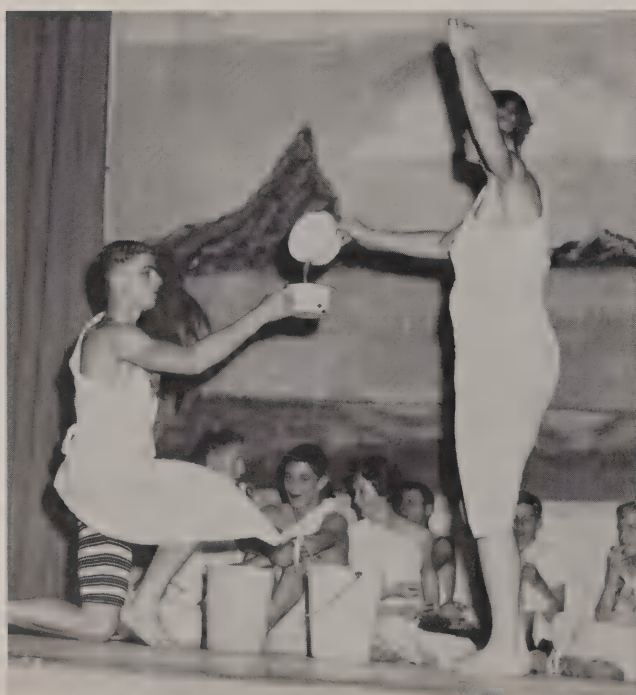

Three charming coeds, Jaylyne Vandever, Marilyn Nielsen, and Elaine Neibaur sing their rendition of "Where or When."

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

Dr. Psy, Kent Brower, explains an interesting case to KOLD correspondent, Sara Bellum, Barbara Elmquist.

The junior class assembly, "Hawaiian Psy," was presented on December 14, 1960. The theme featured a Hawaiian psychiatrist revealing interesting case histories to a correspondent from television station KOLD, Fairbanks, Alaska. The cases of several of our neurotic ancestors were portrayed and "televised" for the public.

Two talented juniors, Bill Manning and Bob Nielsen, present the enchanting "Pot's Ballet" to Caesar and members of his court.

Pete Espinoza and Roger Perotto, portraying Dwayne Eddy and his slightly neurotic assistant, are appreciated by the female population.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

What a big day for the Senior boys! They finally have a chance to display their talents to the world.

This combo, composed of Jim Robertson, Ervin Hirning, Ken Reed, and Karlene Garner present their version of "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

As a climax to the school year, the Seniors presented their assembly, "The Abominable Showman," on May 10, 1961. With three years of experience behind them, members of the class created a memorable production.

Four lovely Seniors (alias Sam Yadon, Corey Eddington, Jim Rush, and Eugene Humphries) tell everyone how "They Enjoy Being A Girl."

"You plenty sexy man, Lieutellen Cable," observes Bloody Mary.

Emile and Nellie are in a philosophical mood as they drink their Cognac.

"Ship ahoy!"

Dites moi pourquoi La vie es belle . . . The happy reunion.

A double romantic theme forms the plot of "South Pacific." Foremost is the love affair of Ensign Nellie Forbush, the charming and high-spirited young nurse from Little Rock, Arkansas, and the gallant, middle-aged French planter, Emile de Becque. The secondary romantic theme is that of the likable and handsome American Marine, Lt. Joseph Cable and the lovely Tonkinese girl, Liat.

Surrounding them we find the fascinating character of Bloody Mary, Liat's shrewd and avaricious mother, who entertains the sailors, seabees and marines on the island.

Nellie is grief-stricken when she learns that Emile is on a dangerous mission.

Minico's All School Play, "The Vampire Bat," was an exciting mystery. Escaped convicts, vampires, and black magic all combine to keep the audience in a state of spine-tingling excitement. The action had to stop several times while the audience finished screaming.

Donald Abbot, Kay, his fiance', and other characters are discussing the news of an escaped convict who supposedly is on their island.

As midnight nears, Buster Craig, Ginger Drew, Kay, and Donald await the coming of the vampire.

Richard Grant and Aunt Lydia are discussing his marriage to her niece, Kay.

Jugobia, an escaped convict dressed as a vampire, is about to attack Donald, while Kay vainly tries to rouse him.

"BULL IN A CHINA SHOP"

Detective O'Finn has been introduced to Miss Lucy for the first time. Miss Birdie, Miss Amantha, Miss Nettie, and Miss Hildegard look on while Miss Elizabeth lies dead on the sofa.

For its annual play, Minico Thespian Troup 268 presented "Bull in a China Shop," a comedy-mystery in which seven old maids, living together in a boarding house, all fell in love with a homicide detective named Dennis O'Finn, who lived across the street. The spinsters knew that the only way they could get his attention was to commit a murder! The first victim was Miss Elizabeth. Because Mr. O'Finn wasn't there enough to satisfy them, they decided to use their rat poison again. This time the unfortunate one was Miss Nettie. In the end Detective O' Finn solved the case and switched from the homicide department to Arson squad. When they heard this, the remaining old ladies set fire to their house.

Jane Rogers, a somewhat aggressive newspaper reporter, played by Marilyn Rassmussen, is trying to talk Detective O'Finn into something.

The old maids first discovered their handsome neighbor by looking through a window with binoculars—Here Miss Elizabeth is describing Mr. O'Finn to the others.

Miss Lucy, Miss Birdie, Miss Nettie, Miss Amantha and Miss Hildegard have decided that they must poison Jane Rogers. One at a time they go over to the tea tray so that one of them can slip rat poison into Jane's tea.

MUSIC ACTIVITIES

Members of the Junior Choir, dressed identically, make an appearance on the program.

During the Cantata finale, all members of the vocal music department combine voices under the direction of Mr. Stocks.

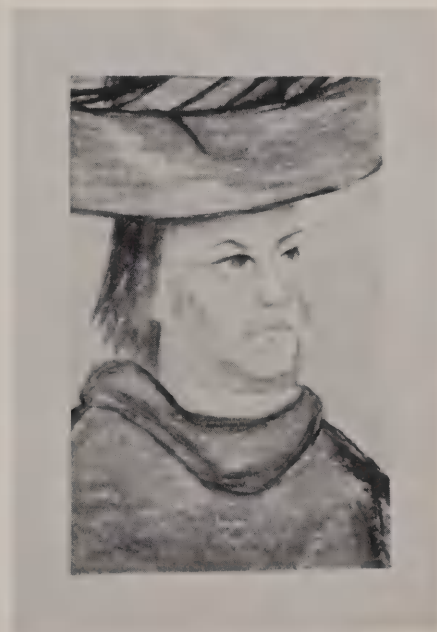

ART ACTIVITIES

Just a glimpse at the art display in the library reveals that it was a most successful year in the art department.

First place winner in the Woman's Club Art Contest was this original painting by Patrick McCarty.

Displayed also, was this selection by Alice Crandall.

Another selection was this still-life painting by Sharel Knight.

AWARD ASSEMBLY

Mr. Burt congratulates Darrell Cheney and presents him with a plaque after he has been named "Thespian of the Year."

Miss Hatch, home economics teacher, presents the Betty Crocker Award to senior Pat Smith during the annual award assembly.

Susan Larsen is presented the Trevino and Johnson scholarship by Mr. Trevino.

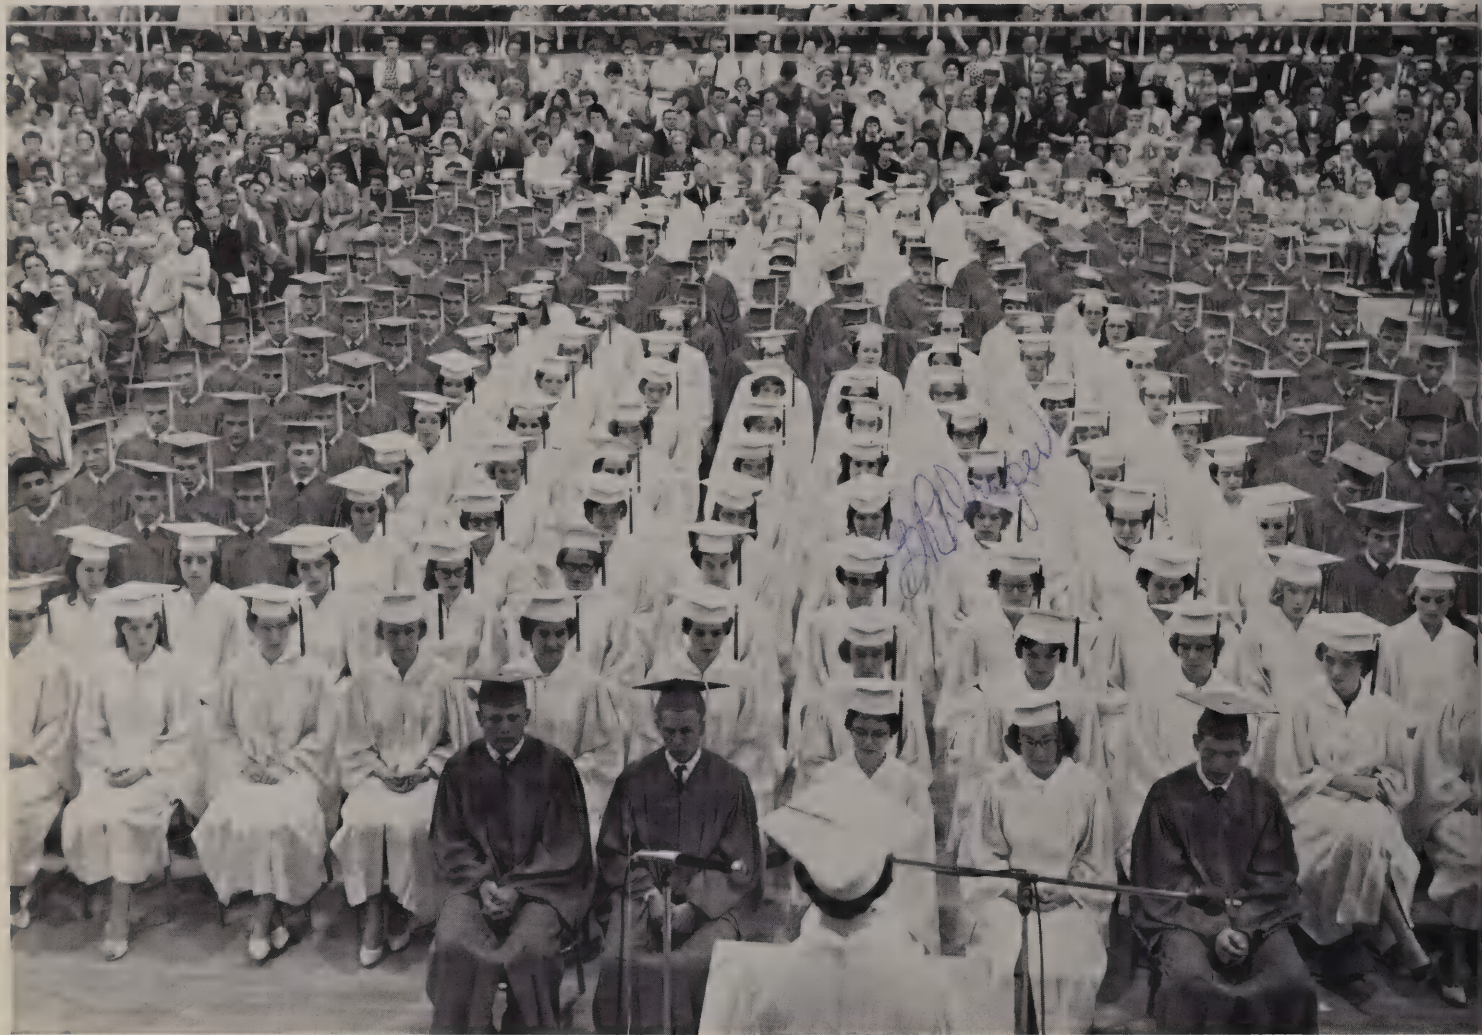

Mrs. Gilmore congratulates and presents awards to the top eleven members of the graduating class.

Mrs. Val Toolson, head of Minico's speech department, presents awards to her outstanding speech and debate students.

GRADUATION

Graduating seniors sit in the traditional "M" formation at Commencement.

Commencement exercises were held at 8:00 P.M. May 22, 1961 in the Minico gym. Student speakers featured during the exercises were Gloria Thompson, valedictorian, Sandra Coffman, salutatorian, and Aslam Khan, Minico's exchange student from West Pakistan. Diplomas were presented by Mr. Harold Peterson, chairman of the Minidoka County School Board.

After receiving their diplomas, graduates change their tassels from left to right.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

ASLAM KHAN

It has been a great experience to be at Minico. Everyone has been very friendly and eager to help me. Minico has become a part of my life and I will always remember the happy time I have had here.

I will be very glad and proud if any of you can visit me in my country, and I hope I can come back someday to see all of you.

I am grateful to all of you, especially to my teachers and the senior class.

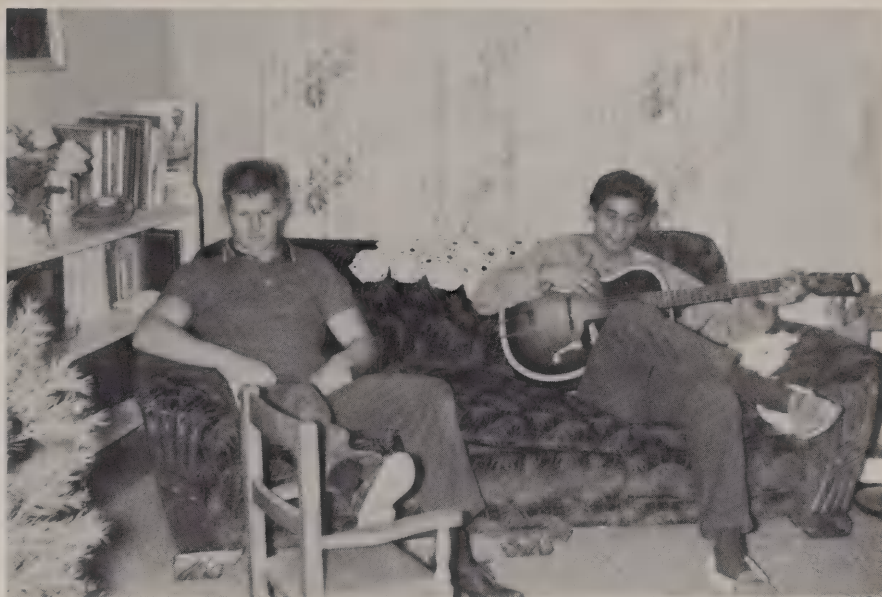

Aslam Khan.

Aslam Khan was born August 10, 1942, in West Pakistan. He is next to the youngest in a family of nine children. His father is a retired army captain, and the Khan family lives in Lahore, one of the largest cities in Pakistan. Many foreigners visit this city which is noted for its historical buildings.

Pakistan has a population of eighty million people. Eighty per cent of these people are Moslems. There are some Christians.

Nobles

Ever present to govern the Spartans in their daily affairs are the Nobles. Using proper guidance, these leaders are especially skilled in sculpturing young minds. Much work and endless effort is put forth in preparing the citizens to meet the hurdles of life.

"The little things that sometimes happen to us may not at the time seem to be particularly momentous, but as time goes on the impression we have gained becomes more and more firmly established. I am sure this will be true with you when you receive the 1961 Sparta for the first time. Its sentimental and material value will be continuously satisfying.

"Much credit goes to the Sparta Staff for a job well done. Certainly all who had a part in such an enterprise must have satisfaction in their achievement. Cherish your Sparta always. It is an invaluable possession."

Camden B Meyer

Meyer, Superintendent of Schools; Lee Merrill, Clerk and Business Manager; Doyle Lowder, Elementary Curriculum Coordinator. Maxine Olson, the Secretary-Treasurer, is not shown.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, SCHOOL BOARD

AND OUR PRINCIPAL

Grandest Spartan of All

Nowhere could be found a more spirited student body than the one at Minico High. The leader of the Spartans is Mr. Leigh Ingersoll. His insight into human nature and his participation in student activities keeps us interested in all the affairs of our school. Somewhere he has found patience to deal with over a thousand problems (students). As a study body we salute you, Mr. Ingersoll!

"High moral and scholastic standards, a real desire to get the most out of life, capable leaders, and an adequate school curriculum, mixed with a willingness to work, are the ingredients of a school of champions.

"May all of us contribute a little more than our share toward the attainment of our goals. I sincerely hope that all of you cherish the friendships and talents that you have developed while attending our school."

Leigh Ingersoll

OFFICE STAFF

One of the busiest people in the school, Mrs. Florence Manning supervises the office and the office help, receipts money, keeps school records, publishes a daily bulletin, acts as secretary to Mr. Ingersoll, and does all other regular office duties.

Florence C. Manning

Mr. Robert Larsen is a very important man around school, especially to the Seniors, as he is vocational counselor for future college and trade school students. Mr. Larsen helps place students in employment and helps plan their future.

Robert K. Larsen

If you want to get a white excuse (or a pink one), Mr. Elmer Eddington is the man to see. Besides taking care of attendance, he takes care of the student body accounts and assists with disciplinary problems.

E. D. Eddington

Guiding, counseling, and advising the feminine portion of the school, Mrs. Ruby Gilmore, girls' advisor, serves and receives respect of the student body. Many students will be forever grateful to her for her timely help and guidance.

Ruby Gilmore

AND ADVISORS

Many students have been able to solve their personal, school, and career problems by using the advice of Mr. Paul Taylor, boys' counselor. Mr. Taylor demonstrates his leadership abilities in sponsoring the Student Council and directing the snack bar.

Paul Taylor

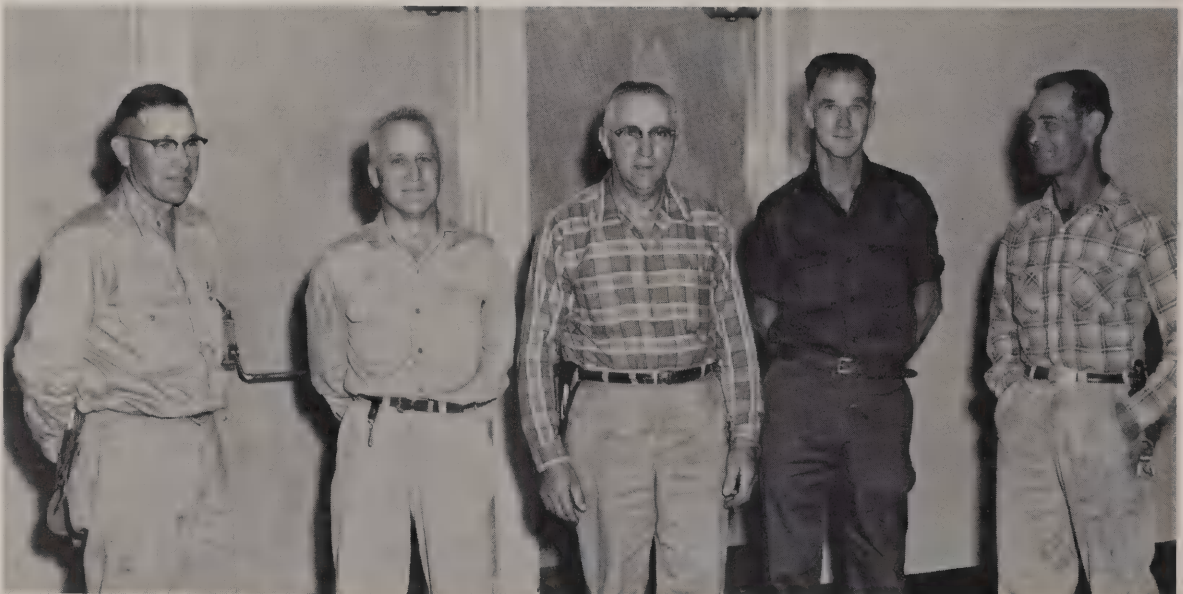

OUR COOKS AND JANITORS

You often see these familiar smiling faces as you go through the school lunch line. The cooks daily prepare a good, nutritious meal for our student body. If you don't think they are important to our school, just watch the students run pell-mell for the lunch line at noon hour.

Marion Allen, Albert Baird, Fred Renz, Jack Carter, Fred Cook.

Always ready to "unjam" a locker for a frantic student, or to supply keys for someone who needs a telephone, our janitors find themselves continually busy. The student body couldn't do without these qualified men, and we appreciate the outstanding job they've done on the upkeep of Minico this year.

OUR STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Jim Rush, President

Susan Bryant, Secretary; Max Serr, Vice-President; Judy Hawk, Treasurer

"It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as Student body president of Minidoka County High School.

"I am proud of Minico, its records of scholastic achievements, the well-rounded curriculum, and the many awards it has received in all fields of inter-school participation.

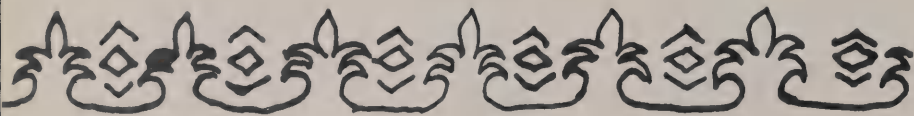

"I would like to thank each and every student, the Student Council, and the faculty members for their help in making 1960-61 a successful year at Minico."

Jim Rush

OUR CHOSEN LEADERS —

Row 1: Doug Miller, Larry Miller, Jackie Alexander, Karen Hatch, LaDawn Anderson, Doris Roemer, Mary Armstrong, Jim Rush, Susan Bryant, Max Serr. Row 2: Bill Manning, Paul Taylor, Joyce Pack, Carol Maxwell, Joyce Jarvis, Connie Moncur, Carol Doutre, Arlene Wilcox, Kathleen Tingey. Row 3: Clayton Severe, Larry Loveland, Beth Blacker, Bonnie Dowd, Camille Nichols, Pat Smith, Karyl Stephenson, Anita Norby, Beverly Cook. Row 4: Steve Wheeler, Jerry Webb, Fayre Shillington, David Westendorf, Sandy Clark, Julie Becker, Jolene Schuldt, Karen Smith, Judy Higley, Carol Catmull.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Row 1: Cherryl Vogt, Jean Smith, Carolyn Smith, Deanna Rausch, John Gomez, Rick Miller.
Row 2: Jeanne Bryars, Marilyn Bell, Linda Renz, Tauna Uriguen, Kenny Reed, Dennis Klauser.
Row 3: Gloria Pack, Terri Brower, Linda Anderson, Carol Manning, Danny Black, Jan Schut.
Row 4: Ann Rush, Gayle Kraemer, Ron Fagg, Dave Merrill, Jim LaRue, Bob Nielsen.

We've had an active Student Council this year. They've carried on all traditional business and activities and have promoted other worthwhile projects. The Student Council took complete charge of the snack bar this year in order to finance an exchange student in the future. They contributed to the fine arts of the school by helping obtain a grand piano. The Council brought honor upon themselves and past student councils by putting a showcase for student body officers in the hall. They bettered our school by initiating amendments to the school constitution.

Head of the library is Mrs. Agnes Eddington, who enjoys indoor gardening, reading, knitting, or sewing at home.

Mrs. Ann Matthews teaches Sophomore and Senior English and sponsors the variety twirlers. You can often find her reading, painting, or attending sport events.

Playing the organ, reading or playing croquet are Mrs. Pearlene Higginbotham's favorites. She sponsors the Sophomore Class and teaches Freshman and Sophomore English.

Miss Betty Dowd sponsors the Freshman Class and teaches English to Sophomores and Juniors. Drama, music, and sports take up Miss Dowd's spare time.

Mrs. Zoe Wixom teaches Freshman English and sponsors the FNA. In her spare time she likes to read, travel, or doodle on the organ.

Mrs. Ruby Crowe likes to work with her flowers, play the organ, or travel. She teaches Junior English.

Mrs. Joyce Olson, assistant librarian, enjoys knitting and skiing down the sunny slopes of Sun Valley.

Besides teaching Senior English, Mrs. Earlene Stephenson sponsors the Senior Class. Her spare time is taken up in sewing, dancing, and reading.

A group of students using our new library.

ENGLISH AND LIBRARY

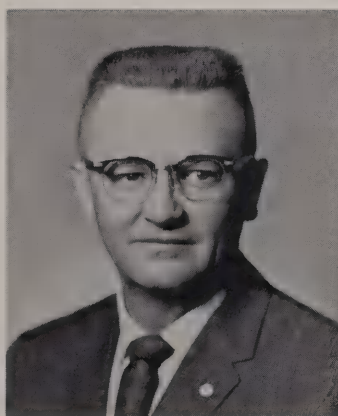

Trying to fill the necessary requirements for graduation, ambitious Seniors study in an English class.

The ideal place to study and contemplate is in our beautiful new library in the English building.

Our English building is a new addition to Minico this year. It has alleviated most of the crowded conditions in the main building.

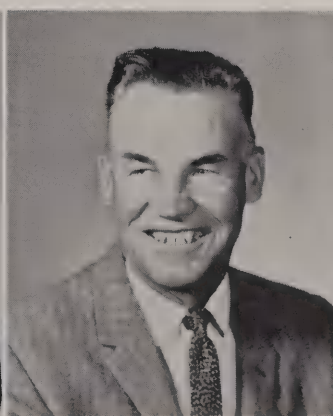

Dale Hunsaker enjoys educational relaxation in our comfortable library.

Head of the English Department is Mr. Vance Beckwith, who teaches Senior English. When he isn't advising FTA, he indulges in creative writing, photography, and fishing.

Athletics, hunting, and fishing take up Mr. Ross Newcomb's time when he isn't sponsoring the Freshman class or teaching them English.

Mr. Dwight Lee teaches journalism and English, advises the annual staff, and sponsors Quill and Scroll. His favorite pastimes are fishing, bowling, and farming.

Taking Mrs. Stephenson's place second semester, Mr. Henry Larom teaches Senior English. He likes theatre work, writing, and fishing.

HOME ECONOMICS

Kathy Gillette, Lowayne Herrboldt, Carol Doutre and Judy Manning seem to be enjoying their own cooking that they've prepared in the food lab.

Miss Karma Hatch teaches Home Economics I and IV as well as advises the new group, the Pommerettes, and the FHA. When Miss Hatch isn't swimming, bike riding, or playing softball, she is spending her spare time sewing, singing, or playing the piano.

If Mrs. Ruth Garland is not at home listening to all kinds of music while cooking for her two young sons, she is teaching Home Economics II and III. She also sponsors the FHA.

Also a sponsor of FHA, Miss Margaret Dwyer teaches Home Economics I and III. She sponsors the Babysitting Club. At home she is a stereo and piano fan. She participates in and enjoys bowling and cooking.

Carol Grace, Sandra Tucker, Jean Freeman and Linda Bergstrom sew a fine seam and realize the importance of sewing their own clothes.

AND VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

Head of the Vocational Agriculture Department is Mr. Keith Merrill who teaches Vocational Agriculture, I, II, III, IV, Farm Shop, and Farm Management. He sponsors the West Minico FFA, operates his farm, builds furniture, and enjoys photography.

The activities of the Agriculture boys extend beyond the classroom.

Helping build America's family life on a strong foundation, home economics and vocational agriculture prepare young people for the future. Agriculture teaches the young men better ways of earning 'bread,' and home economics teaches the young women better ways of preparing the 'bread' the young men earn. You can always find some activity in these departments because, as they say, you always learn more from experience.

John Norby is adjusting a very important item in the shop—the acetylene torch.

Mr. Vernon MacNeil also teaches Vocational Agriculture I, II, III, and IV. He sponsors East Minidoka FFA and spends his pastime in hunting, fishing, shell reloading, and building with wood and iron.

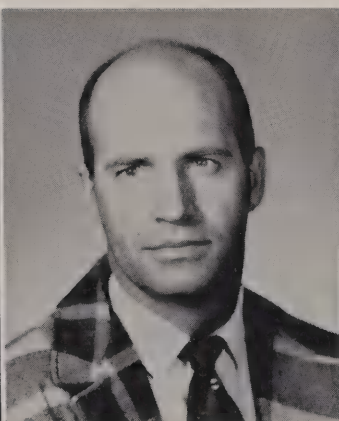

SCIENCE

Linda Hawk, Paul Whitesides, and Karen Smith perform an experiment in the chem lab.

As head of the Science Department Mr. Elmer Edgington teaches chemistry, sponsors the Ski Club, and enjoys hunting, fishing, and woodwork.

When Mr. Dan Zohner isn't sponsoring the Sophomore class he is helping students dissect or peer into microscopes in biology.

Coaching the wrestlers, playing chess, fishing, and reading, take up Mr. Elmer Rush's time when he isn't teaching physics, senior science, or geometry.

Mr. Hallie Heiner teaches classes of general science and biology when he isn't sponsoring the Sophomores or playing basketball and fishing.

Mr. Walter Bromenschenkel teaches chemistry and in his spare time enjoys reading, woodwork, and traveling.

Woodworking, hunting, fishing, and music rate tops with Mr. Ned Moon when he isn't teaching general science to the Freshmen.

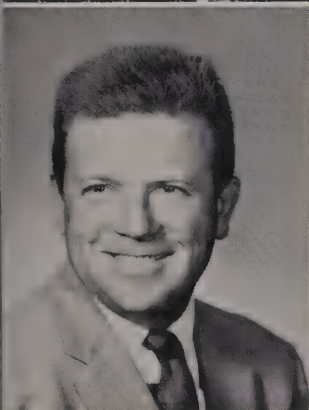

Mr. Jesse Moses teaches geology and mechanical drawing and sponsors the Rifle Club. Fishing, hunting, and leathercraft are his favorites.

Biology and advanced biology are Mr. Leland Hephworth's classroom subjects this year. He likes to hunt and fish.

As head of the Mathematics Department, Mr. John Mitchell has classes of geometry, senior math, advanced math, and Algebra II. He also enjoys sponsoring the Junior class and farming activities.

Mr. Raymond Anderson advises the Freshman class, teaches senior math, and algebra, and likes all types of sports. He enjoys running his farm.

Well-known as varsity football coach and basketball coach, Mr. Bill Matthews is the head of the Athletic Department and sponsors the "M" Club. He likes hunting and fishing when he isn't teaching geometry or algebra.

Mr. Robert Halverson teaches general math and geometry, assists the coaching of football and wrestling, and likes to just tinker around the yard, fish, or hunt.

You can often find Mr. Mark Johnson tinkering with a radio, reading, or teaching many students geometry or algebra.

AND MATHEMATICS

Internationally, nationally, and locally, math and science are providing us with a better world by working together toward higher goals. Compare life a few hundred years ago with that of today and you will notice a vast difference. Math and science have been a major factor in the improving of our society to make it what it is today.

Deanna Smith and Stanley Bruns show the correct procedure for setting up algebraic equations.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Our language booths in operation.

Besides teaching French this year, Mrs. Ruby Gilmore also sponsors the Minicoeds. She spends her spare time with clubs bridge and reading.

Head of the Language Department is Mr. Lee Walton who teaches Spanish. Mr. Walton hunts, fishes, or works his horses in his spare time.

Foreign languages are becoming increasingly important in our educational program today. Our school offers a program in both French and Spanish, and many students take advantage of this opportunity to learn a foreign language. New booths were installed for the language department this year. They aid students in learning to speak the language more fluently.

AND SOCIAL STUDIES

Many films are shown during the year in social studies.

Head of the Social Studies Department is Mr. Harold Hurst who advises the Senior class and teaches them American Government. Mr. Hurst likes to read, golf, and travel.

Besides teaching American History and Psychology, Mr. Grover Newman sponsors the Junior Class. His spare time hobbies are carpentry, reading, and camping.

Mr. Emer Winward teaches both American History and American Government. He sponsors the Senior class and enjoys hunting and reading.

Mr. Robert Malan teaches both American and World History. He advises the Junior class and enjoys reading, farming, and collecting literature.

A knowledge of our American History is vital to all citizens of America. In this picture we see Paul Taylor and Brian Warthen studying the bulletin board their teacher has prepared to further their interest in history.

Besides teaching speech and debate, Mrs. Elizabeth Toolson sponsors NFL and Declamation. Her spare time is taken up in golfing, painting, and reading.

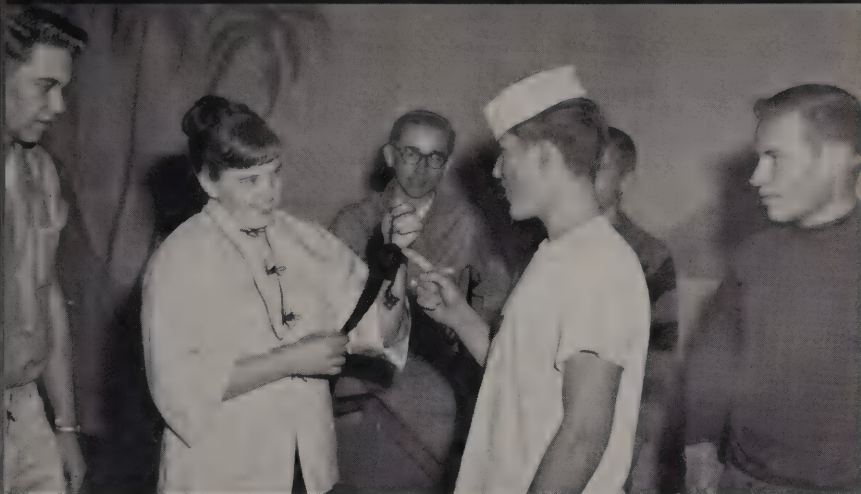

The villain was portrayed by Hartzell Phillips in the All School Play.

SPEECH, DRAMA

Mr. Paul Burt likes to fish, hunt, be in plays, and listen to music. He sponsors the Thespians and teaches Drama I, II, and Speech I.

Under the teacher's direction, Rocky Newcomb gives an arousing speech.

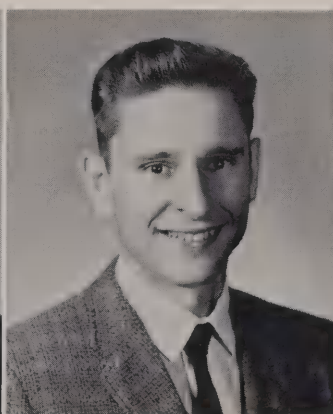

Earl Culley, Arlene Short, Leonard Kerbs, Darrell Cheney, Terry McCombs, and Kenny Reed casually rehearse a scene in the operetta.

AND MUSIC

Head of the Music Department is Mr. Ned Stocks who teaches Senior, Junior, Sophomore Choir and Girls' Chorus. The annual operetta, fishing, hunting, and golf take up his spare time.

Listening to good music, and fishing are Mr. Robert Marshall's favorites. He sponsors Dance Band and teaches band. He also has a study hall and sponsors the Pep Band.

Mrs. Betty Harrison teaches Freshman mixed chorus at Minico and music at other schools. She likes to hunt deer, fish, and bowl.

Unknown parties, apparently wanting a 'honky-tonk' effect, caused Mr. Stocks an embarrassing moment before an operetta performance when he had to remove the thumb tacks from the hammer pads of the piano.

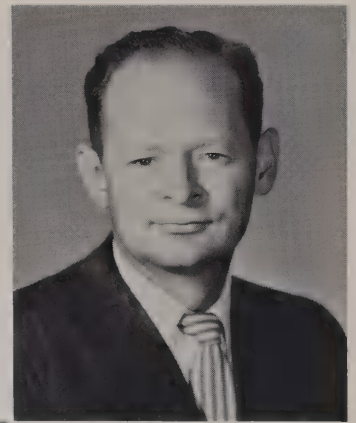

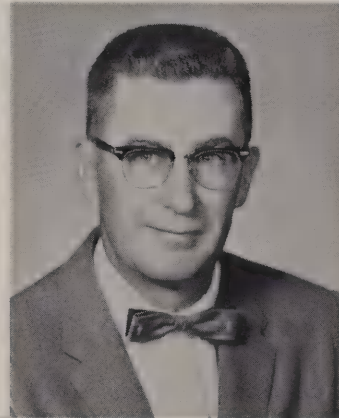

Kaye Merrill, Kim Dickson, Wayne Carney, and Carlos Anderson show high interest in Crafts as a hobby or as a vocation.

ART, CRAFTS, INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Head of the Art Department is Mr. Arlo Coles who teaches Art I, II, and III. Mr. Coles' hobby is looking forward to summer vacation each year.

Mr. Earl Griffin teaches industrial arts besides sponsoring the Freshman class. Outside of school hours you often find him golfing or farming.

Besides being assistant coach, Mr. Glen Maughan also teaches crafts. In his spare time you can find him working his horses, hunting, or fishing.

Jerrold Carlile, Darlene Ambrose, JoAnn Serr and Pat Stronks are well on their way to becoming artists with Mr. Coles' assistance.

Head of the Business Department is Mr. Robert Larsen. He teaches advanced typing, secretarial office practice, Distributive Education, and sponsors the DECA Club and the Senior Class.

These students are aware of the most progressive business methods and systems.

When Mr. Gaile Nelson isn't teaching bookkeeping, he is in charge of a study hall. Away from school, he enjoys hunting, fishing, and carpentry.

At school Mrs. Verna Turley teaches shorthand and typing. In her spare time she sponsors the Junior class, sews, or embroiders.

Mrs. Ildra Bowman teaches many classes of typing. Her spare time activities include hand work, gardening, especially flowers, and housework in general.

AND BUSINESS

The Sophomore class has Mr. Howard Bruns as a sponsor. He also teaches typing and supervises study hall. Music and photography are Mr. Bruns' hobbies.

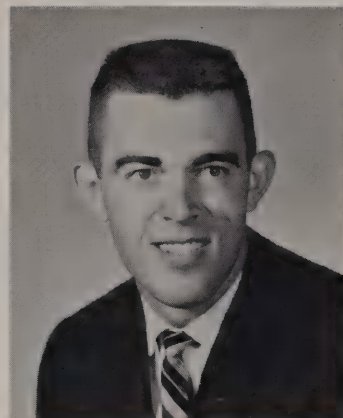

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

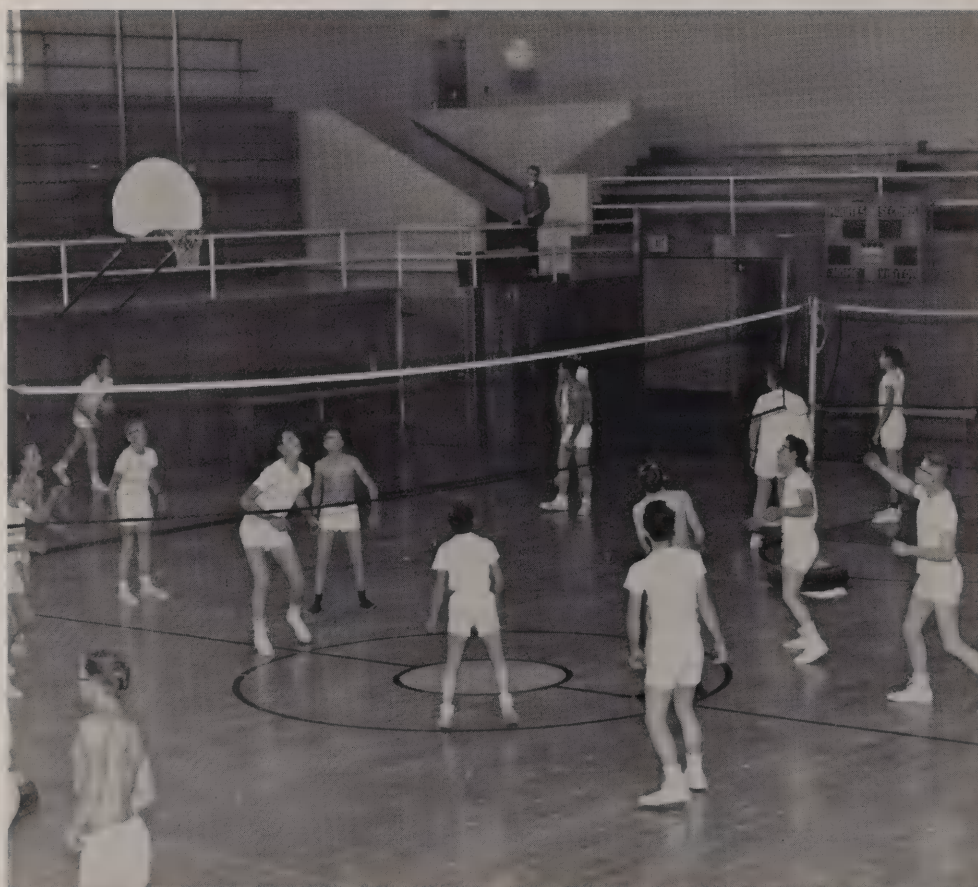

Mr. Keith Wilson teaches physical education, health, and English. When he isn't sponsoring the Coin Club, coaching track, J.V. basketball, or football, he enjoys collecting coins and antiques or bowling, golfing, and other sports.

Miss LuDean Thurston, sponsor of the Pep Clubs, GAA, and Drill Team, teaches health, and physical education. Her favorite pastimes are sports, cooking, sewing, camping, and fishing.

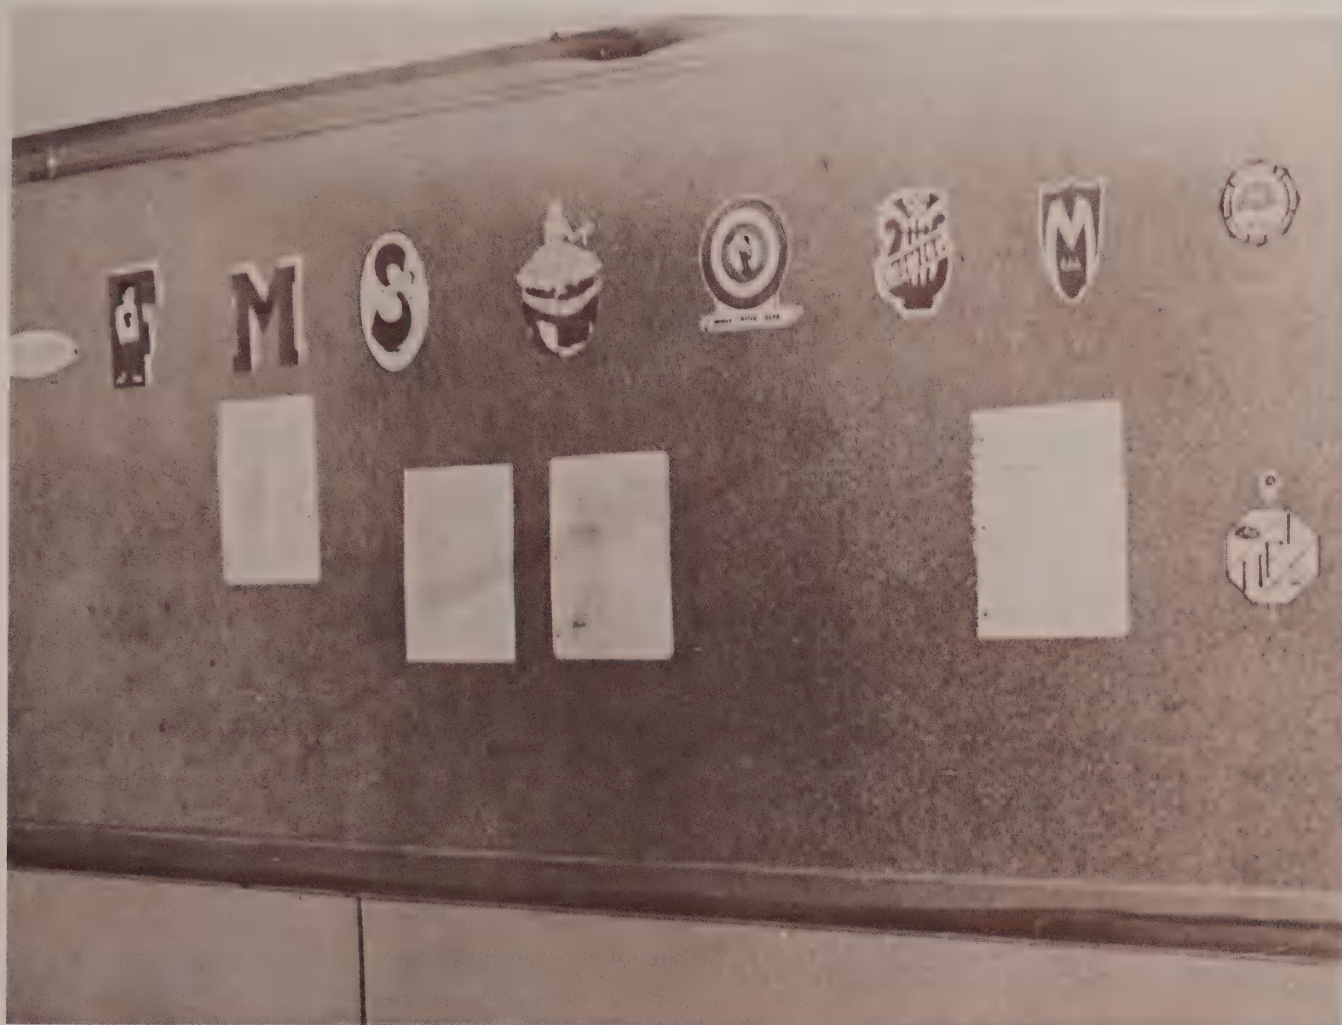

Mr. Bryce Dethlefs, the assistant coach of football, basketball, and track, teaches physical education, health, and world geography. He also likes to fish, hunt, play basketball and tell jokes.

A typical P. E. class playing volleyball.

Public Notices

To keep a thriving Spartan community, the citizens must support the local businesses. Willingness in this aspect is greatly appreciated by the local Sparta patrons.

"Reserved" - ~~Love~~
(lose you) - you, too!

Hi Doug! I've been great knowing you, & dating you, & I'll never forget the time
times we had this year.
Remember always the Senior Ball... same dances so much for the wonderful time you showed me Dec. 11.
It will never be forgotten!
St Doug, you're one of the most sparkling personalities anyone ever had. Plus is a very enviable trait. Mr. Personality. You that is never without a "Hi" and a big smile for everyone. It was so good being in school with you. I'll be neighbor, too. I'll be you've got a long old road to tread, but I know it will pass quickly for you because you always make every moment for you day-count! Good luck in all your endeavors and college. You deserve God's richest blessings.
when you come home. I am running out of space on this page so I'll close.
Good luck! God bless and keep you always.
Love,
Anita
